Education and Experience

Miranda Lee earned her Masters in Science of Acupuncture degree from the Colorado School of Traditional Chinese Medicine in 2014. This program consists of 2,265 hours of education including 1,000 hours of clinical practice.

Miranda is certified as a Diplomate in Acupuncture by the National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM) in July 2016. This includes certification in Clean Needle Technique. She is a licensed acupuncturist and licensed massage therapist in the state of Colorado and is certified in Cosmetic Acupuncture and Microneedling. Miranda is a member of the Acupuncture Association of Colorado and the American Acupuncture Council.

None of these licenses, certificates, or registrations has ever been suspended or revoked.

This clinic complies with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Colorado Department of Health, including the proper cleaning and sterilization of needles and the sanitation of acupuncture offices. Only single-use, disposable, factory-sterilized needles are utilized. All training and experience in the recommendation and application of therapies is defined by traditional Chinese Medicine concepts.

Patient's Rights

- The patient is entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, and the duration of therapy, if known.
- The patient may seek a second opinion from another healthcare professional or terminate therapy at any time.
- In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the Director of the Division of Registrations in the Department of Regulatory Agencies.
